

ALBUQUERQUE'S HUMAN SPIRIT IS ALIVE AND WELL

Residential Neighborhood Yard, Wall, Roof, and Sidewalk Art

Volume 1 (February-March 2025)

Expressions of the human spirit are everywhere in Albuquerque - sometimes surprising us or making us laugh, but always adding a little zing to our lives. Hopefully the following images lift your spirits.

In February 2025, Paula Donahue began taking photos of residential yard, wall, roof, and sidewalk art that can be seen from public streets and alleys. Initially she concentrated on neighborhoods near her house. She soon invited others to send photos of yard art in their neighborhoods. If yard art was scarce, she asked contributors to make some and then send pictures.

This collection contains photos taken February through March 2025. A second volume will be started in spring. The artwork shown is not commercially or publicly funded.
